

Construction Continues

Here are two pictures of the construction progress at DeShazo Elementary and the High School. The first picture is a picture of the construction work at DeShazo Elementary. You can see that the plumbing has pretty much all been roughed in. The second picture is a picture of the construction work at the High School. It is a picture of the contractor digging drill piers for the foundation at the High School.

