

Before the rains hit this weekend, the construction crews had put in most of the plumbing for the DeShazo Elementary addition. Attached is a picture of the progress at DeShazo Elementary. The rains have delayed the work for a few days, but I'm sure that work will continue at DeShazo Elementary and the High School as soon as things dry out a little.

DeShazo construction

