

High School Facilities Update 6/25/09

The front entrance of the High School is taking shape, and it is looking good. The second picture shows the contractor hanging the steel for the roof in the commons area. We should start removing the east wall of the cafeteria either the end of this week or the beginning of next. It's going to be great!

